SENATE BILL NO. 417 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 417, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing that an employe sustaining an injury within the terms and provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act shall be entitled to a hearing before the Industrial Accident Board within a reasonable time, and that the Industrial Accident Board shall have the authority to delay the time of such hearing when the association is paying compensation according to law, and is furnishing hospitalization or medical treatment or such employe has not reached his maximum recovery; and providing that no appeal shall be taken from the action of the Board in so delaying such hearing."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. McDougald offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate bill No. 417 by striking out the following words in line 40, page 1, and line 1, page 2, of said printed bill: "Or such employe has not reached a maximum recovery," and by striking out the comma after "employee," on page 1, line 40.

The amendment was adopted.

Senate bill No. 417 was then passed to third reading.

SENATE BILL NO. 420 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 420, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Chapter 10, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, by enacting a new article to be known as 4905a, providing for the regulation of insurance against loss by lightning or tornado or windstorm or hail, and of the rates to be collected in this State for such insurance, by the State Board of Insurance Commissioners, in the same manner and to the same extent as is now provided by law with respect to the writing of fire insurance and the rates of such insurance, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. McCombs offered the following amendments to the bill:

(1)

Amend Senate bill No. 420 by inserting the words "flood or rising water," after the word "crops," in line 12, Section 1.

(2)

Amend Senate bill No. 420 so as to provide that the caption will conform with the body of the bill.

(3)

Amend Senate bill No. 420, page 1, line 38, and line 11, page 2, by inserting words "of Title 78" between figure "10" and word "of" in said lines.

The amendments were severally adopted.

Senate bill No. 420 was then passed to third reading.

SENATE BILL NO. 420 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. McCombs moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that Senate bill No. 420 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The Speaker then laid Senate bill No. 420 before the House on its third reading and final passage.

The bill was read third time and was passed.

BILLS SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

The Speaker signed, in the presence of the House, after giving due notice thereof and their captions had been read severally, the following enrolled bills:

S. B. No. 194, "An Act to authorize the Texas Prison System, by and with the consent of the Governor and the Attorney General, to grant and lease to districts, companies, firms and individuals carrying on or formed for the purpose of carrying on an irrigation business, rights of way for irrigation canals, laterals, flumes and ditches, not over 150 feet in width, along, across and over lands owned by the State as a part of the Penitentiary System, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 201, "An Act making it an offense for any person to manufacture, sell, break, open or explode in this State any bomb, shell, or any other device containing any gas, air, or other substance which stinks or is repulsive to smell, and which is constructed and designed to emanate the same; making exceptions, prescribing fines, penalties and punishment, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 218, "An Act amending Article 4725 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925; designating the securities in which the funds of life insurance companies may be invested; providing that if a domestic life insurance company reinsures the business and takes over the assets of another life insurance company, either domestic or foreign, the reinvestments of such company so taken over and reinsured, if authorized when made by the laws of the State of its incorporation, shall be considered as valid securities of the domestic company so taking it over."

S. B. No. 502, "An Act directing the Attorney General of the State of Texas to investigate the facts and authorizing him to file a suit against the State of New Mexico to secure for the State of Texas its proportionate part of the waters of the Pecos river for irrigation, etc., and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 5, "An Act to amend Chapter 8, being Senate bill No. 57, General Laws, Fourth Called Session, Forty-first Legislature, and Chapter 10 of Title 122 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, by adding thereto another article, to be known as Article 7335a, limiting the power of commissioners courts in making contracts in connection with the collection of delinquent taxes; limiting the compensation that can be paid under such contracts, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 511, "An Act authorizing and directing the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the State of Texas to deed, convey, assign and/or transfer all right, title and interest of whatsoever class, kind or character, directly or indirectly, belonging to the State of Texas, in and to that tract of land known as the 'Wayside State Park, Wayside, Texas, 120 acres,' situated in the Palo Duro canyon, Armstrong county, in the State of Texas, to H. G. Bowe of Swisher county, Texas, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 629, "An Act providing for a rural school supervisor in certain counties in lieu of teachers' institutes; prescribing the duties of said supervisor; providing for visits to schools in the county and work in cooperation with teachers; prescribing the salary of said supervisor and how it shall be paid; providing other things incidental to said purpose, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 618, "An Act to amend Article 1641 by adding thereto another section, to be known as Article 1641a, providing for the making of audits of counties of a certain population by grand juries and the State Auditor; providing generally the means and manner thereof, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 592, "An Act to amend Section 2, Chapter 22, Acts of the Second Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, as amended by Chapter 24, Acts of the Fifth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 507, "An Act to amend Section 1, Chapter 10, Acts of the Fourth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 481, "An Act regulating the patenting of lands formerly a part of Oklahoma, but awarded to the State of Texas by the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of the State of Oklahoma vs. the State of Texas, United States of America, intervener, which are now situated in Lipscomb, Hemphill, Collingsworth, Wheeler and Childress counties; providing for the validating of titles thereto, and the means and manner thereof; providing for the keeping of records and the filing of instruments affecting title thereto, and for the administration of the same in evidence; providing for the adoption of rules and regulations by the Land Commissioner, and generally for the enforcement hereof; making an appropriation for the purposes hereof; providing the effective date hereof, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 469, "An Act amending Chapter 177, Acts of the Thirty-ninth Legislature, Regular Session, page 343, as amended by the Acts of the Forty-first Legislature, Regular Session, Chapter 221, page 472, as amended by the Acts of the Fifth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, Chapter 45, page 185, relating to fur-bearing animals, by adding thereto Section 13a, providing that the open season for fur-bearing animals shall be extended fifteen (15) days in Cottle county, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 240, "An Act to amend Article 396, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 31, "An Act to amend Section 16, Senate bill No. 11, Chapter 42, General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-first Legislature."

S. B. No. 163, "An Act to amend Section 23 of an act authorizing the creation of corporations for the purpose of compiling and or owning an abstract plant, approved February 27, 1929, and being Chapter 40 of the Acts of the Forty-first Legislature, by substituting liability on directors instead of on stockholders, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 203, "An Act more adequately providing for State parks, providing a means by which the State Parks Board may earn revenue in concessions and concession contracting; enacting provisions and providing all things necessary and incidental to said subject and purpose; making an appropriation to carry out the purpose of this act and the laws of the State in reference to State parks and the State Parks Board, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 207, "An Act to amend Section 7 of Article 8308, Revised Statutes of 1925, by adding thereto the provision that any employer of labor in this State who may be subject to the terms of the Workmen's Compensation Law or to the terms of the 'Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act' of the United States may become a subscriber to the association; and to amend Section 21 of Article 8308, Revised Statutes of 1925, as amended by Acts of 1927, Fortieth Legislature, page 359, Chapter 241, by inserting after the words 'or by any judgment of a court' the word 'or equity or,' so that said section shall provide that the association shall also pay to the subscriber who has complied with its rules the full amount of any judgment of a court of equity which the subscriber has had to pay any employe for personal injuries sustained in the course of his employment, and declaring an emergency."

S. B. No. 208, "An Act to amend Article 4907, Revised Statutes of 1925, by striking out the words Chapter 18 of this title' following the words 'contemplated and provided for by' and inserting in lieu thereof the words 'Title 130, known as the Workmen's Compensation Law,' and adding thereto the provision that the said commission shall make, establish and promulgate all classifications of hazards and rates of premium applicable to contemplated and provided for by the 'Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act,' as enacted by the Congress of the United States, and declaring an emergency."

SENATE BILL NO. 383 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 383, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing for the adoption of minors, establishing real relations between the children and adopted parents, and repealing Title 3, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, Revision of 1925, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Farmer offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend enrolled Senate bill No. 383, page 3, by adding between the first and second sentence of Section 9 the following sentence, to-wit: "Provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent such adopted child from inheriting from its natural parent; all adopted children shall inherit from the adopted as well as its natural parents."

FARMER, PETSCH.

The amendment was adopted.

Senate bill No. 383 was then passed to third reading.

SENATE BILL NO. 383 ON THIRD READING.

Mr. Petsch moved that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that Senate bill No. 383 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,
Austin, Texas, May 20, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed

H. B. No. 251, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 7047, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, providing for the levy of occupation taxes on, and the collection from persons, firms, associations and companies pursuing the several occupations enumerated herein; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith; providing that if any subdivision or part of this act may be declared invalid for any reason it shall not affect any other section, subdivision or part of this act, and declaring an emergency," with amendments.

H. B. No. 842, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing the executor or administrator of estates, upon application and order authorizing same, to renew and extend obligations owing to or by such estates, and declaring an emergency."

Respectfully,
BOB BARKER,
Secretary of the Senate.

SENATE BILL NO. 453 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

HOUSE BILL NO. 251 WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Mr. Holder called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. B. No. 251, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 7047, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, providing for the levy of occupation taxes on, and the collection from persons, firms, associations and companies pursuing the several occupations enumerated herein; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith; providing that if any subdivisions or part of this act may be declared invalid for any reason it shall not affect any other section, subdivision or part of this act, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and the Senate amendments were read.

Mr. Holder moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments, and that a free conference committee be requested to adjust the differences between the two houses on the bill.

Mr. Forbes moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. Farmer moved that further consideration of the motions be postponed at this time, and that the Senate amendments be mimeographed and placed on the desks of the members.
